

I am writing in regard to the proposal of the banking industry to by-pass the no call list. By allowing this to be an exception will open the flood gates for every telemarketer to resume business as usual. Please, do not allow this to start all over again. I have come to enjoy the peace and quiet in my home with out the phone ringing every 20 minutes for some "can't miss offer". Thank you.